Humanities Source Analysis

College | History, humanities, and philosophy

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read in context. Represent the author's position fairly before you agree, challenge, or connect it to another source.

CONTEXT + PURPOSE

Who created this, when, for whom, and why?

CENTRAL CLAIM

Write the main claim in your own words.

EVIDENCE + REASONING

What evidence is used? How does the reasoning connect it to the claim?

ASSUMPTIONS + SILENCES

What is assumed, omitted, or treated as unquestionable?

SYNTHESIS

How does this source support, complicate, or contradict another course source?

More free resources: resources.richnerds.co.site | Personalized academic support: richnerds.co.site

Free for personal and classroom use. Please share the original PDF. Not for resale. | @richnerdstutoring