Learner: _____ Date: _____

Read the two original viewpoints. Identify one difference in what each narrator notices or believes.

NARRATOR A: I liked the crowded market because every table held something new.

NARRATOR B: The market felt too noisy, so I searched for a quiet corner.

Difference: _____

NARRATOR A: The steep trail was an exciting challenge.

NARRATOR B: I worried about the loose rocks and walked slowly.

Difference: _____

NARRATOR A: Group work helped me hear new ideas.

NARRATOR B: I focused better when I planned my part alone.

Difference: _____

NARRATOR A: The surprise ending made the story memorable.

NARRATOR B: I wanted more clues before the ending.

Difference: _____

Grown-up check: Accept a supported contrast for each pair, such as excited/cautious or social/independent.
